For decades, Odisha was considered as one of India's most backward states. But under the leadership of Naveen Patnaik, it has made huge strides in every sphere, from human-development indices and disaster management to becoming the role model for India's future sporting programme. This book, co-authored by Boria Majumdar, one of India's best known sports scholars and commentators, and Vineel Krishna, Secretary Sports for the Government of Odisha, is an attempt to make sense of that transformation, especially in the sporting space. It is a tale of what can happen when a wealth of untapped talent is harnessed by proper administration and planning, and the creation of state-of-the-art infrastructure. It is the story of how a state stepped in at the last minute to stage a major event, and how its success turned into a springboard for future endeavours. It documents the sea change that has been witnessed in the past half-decade, with the creation of world-class stadia, high-performance centres and hostels to house the most talented kids from the relatively under-developed regions of the state. It's also testament to the resilience and determination of the athletes, many of whom have overcome colossal odds to shine on the world stage. Most of all though, it's a story of hope – of what can happen when a government prioritises its people and recognises the power of sport to bring about lasting and positive social change.

Reading provides an endless opportunity, a door ajar, to a sense of greater sensitive and systemic, competence-acceptance.

Because when everything fails, the words find thoughts, and ideas fabricate beauty. Kontinental Tales is an in-gathering, of 30 wonderful word-wizards, and the staging of their 'inventive writing', crafted into a splendid 'spectacle script'. The write-ups are unthemed, woven together into different 'narrative strain of melodies', thus enhancing the magic of creativity.

Happy Reading.

Modern School Mathematics - Book 5

(Rev.Edn) Ratna Sagar

A young man and his family cannot find the suitable bride for him. But one day they meet a beautiful widow and in order to woo her for marriage, the family makes various attempts but ultimately decides to reject her as well, due to a heinous incident. A young boy who has constantly failed in life develops a covert relationship with his father's friend's wife. When the boy went to visit this lady at her house late one night, he realized that he should not have done so. A young lady who is busy in her professional life considers cooking to be a job meant for housewives which is unfit for her. However, when she faces difficulties in another city with food, she decides to reconsider her opinion on cooking. One day while leaving for office, Mr. Gupta discovered a drawing in his pocket which reminded him of an incident in his past and started to haunt him. He finally discovered that this drawing was made by his wife and so he decided to silence his wife forever. A young girl is the topper of the class and she never lets slackness creep into her academics but this girl had a grave secret in life which eventually caused her death. During Durga Puja, a household maid wishes to celebrate like everyone else but she cannot. A daughter's life is changed after she comes to know about the family secret of her uncle and aunt.

"I have fallen in love with the imagination. And if you fall in love with the imagination, you understand that it is a free spirit. It will go anywhere and it can do anything."

- Alice Walker Apart from being a creative art form, writing is therapeutic in channelizing and managing one's emotions as well as stating firm conviction. We, at The Little Reading Room, Kolkata, believe in encouraging communication and self expression by young writers. Brewing Little Tales being the first book in the series, is our tiny step towards the world of publishing for our youthful authors.

A series of moments captured from every phase of life and documented through poetries. In a fast-paced life like now, it's important for us to take a moment... breathe and believe that there is a whole wide world out there with stories hidden deep inside their souls, eager to be told.

CONFESSIONS OF A MOODY MANIAC
verses Kindler Publication

When we talk about taking care of ourselves. We usually don't have time.

"Why does it matter?" "Is this even essential?" "Work is only important".

These are some arguments which people usually put forward. I planned on compiling this Anthology because different writers can transmit various ideas about the Self-care which will make this book unique. "Pretty Me" is an anthology which consists of 20 folks who are trying to tell the world that your soul and your body are more valuable than anything else in this world. It will benefit all the generations to come as technology is advancing and civilizations are gradually forgetting about themselves. This book has been compiled by Nabeela Khan And published by Unvoiced Heart Publications.
