Contract farming provides a unique opportunity for a landowner to step back from active farming and release working capital, whilst retaining full involvement in the farming policy and land management. This is achieved by selecting a contractor who provides all the labour and machinery and is remunerated with a fixed contract fee, plus a share of the profits. Contract Farming - Laurence Gould Partnership A set of papers on the role of contract farming in promoting inclusive market access, published by FAO in 2013, covers contractual arrangements in Argentina, Bangladesh, Brazil, China, Honduras, South Africa, Tanzania and Thailand. The editors conclude that despite a preference for procurement from large farmers, factors other than farm size contribute to a company's decision and that contract farming will not, therefore, necessarily lead to the exclusion of small farmers from supply chains.
