A concise, clear, effective review of Commercial Paper and Payment Systems topics organized around the theme of multiple-choice questions. The basic format follows the same structure established by the first title in the series, Joseph Glannon's The Glannon Guide to Civil Procedure. The book includes brief explanatory text about the topic under discussion, followed by one or two multiple-choice questions. After each question, the author explains how the correct choice was chosen. Thus the student reviews course content and also learns how to analyze exam questions. Features: Integrates multiple-choice questions into a full-fledged review of the first-year Commercial Paper and Payment Systems course. Lead-up discussion of law in the text prepares students to learn effectively from subsequent questions. Clear explanations of correct and incorrect answers help to clarify nuances in the law. Multiple-choice questions are sophisticated but fair, neither too difficult nor unrealistically straightforward. Equally useful to all students, regardless of whether they will be tested by multiple-choice questions on their exams. Embodies a far more user-friendly and interactive approach than other exam preparation aids. A more challenging final question in each chapter (the "Closer") illustrates a more sophisticated problem in the area under discussion. "Closing Closer" questions in the last chapter provide practice and helpful review of concepts in earlier chapters. Valuable exam-taking pointers interspersed within the substantive text. New to the Second Edition: Expanded discussion of online payments issues (eBay, PayPal, various online fraud/warranty issues). Additional multiple-choice questions, to further illustrate the legal rules. Discussion and questions related to issues arising from the mortgage crisis, including whether a promissory note may be enforced if the note is not present (such as in foreclosure). Whether a securitized note may be enforced by an investor in the security. Updates to address changes in credit card and debit card law. A new section on the modernization of the check collection system (now every bank is deemed a local bank).

About the Test The Advanced Placement Examination in English Language & Composition is geared toward the student who has studied the mechanics of writing and rhetoric at an advanced level, and wishes to pursue college credit. Take care not to confuse the AP Examination in English Language & Composition with the AP Examination in Literature & Composition. The Literature exam focuses on literature and literary criticism, while the Language exam deals with writing as a craft. This book is designed to help you prepare for the AP Examination in English Language & Composition only. The AP English Language & Composition Exam is divided into two sections: Section 1 - Multiple-Choice (60 minutes - accounts for 45% of total score) Five or six reading passages, with an average of 10 questions each. Section 2 - Free-Response (up to 120 minutes - accounts for 55% of total score) Three essay questions. The first section consists of five or six reading passages and sixty multiple-choice questions, which you will have one hour to complete. Each passage will be followed by an average of ten questions and thereafter the passage will not be referred to again. Do not feel pressured to remember each reading - just digest them one at a time and move on. After reading the passage, you will have approximately one minute to answer each question. The second section of the AP English Language & Composition Exam consists of three essay questions, and is divided such that you will have forty minutes to write each essay. Do not expect to be able to go back to an essay after the allotted time has elapsed. Note that each essay has very specific instructions, and most have a passage which you will read critically to answer the essay question. Your essays will be scored according to the essay structure, the clarity of your writing, and the extent to which you have answered the question. Scoring the Exam The multiple-choice section of the exam is scored by crediting each correct answer with one point and deducting one-fourth of a point for each incorrect answer. Unanswered questions receive neither a credit nor a deduction. The free-response essays are graded by more than 5,000 instructors and professors who gather together each June for a week of non-stop AP essay grading. Each essay booklet is read and scored by four graders. Each grader provides a score for the individual essays. This score is a number on a scale from 0 to 9, 0 being the lowest and 9 the highest. The graders are not aware of each other's scores. When the essays have been graded four times, the scores are averaged - one score for each of the three essays - so that the free-response section is composed of three scores. The three essays are weighted equally, and the total weight of the free-response section is fifty-five percent of the total score. The multiple-choice section accounts for forty-five percent of the total score. Each year the overall grades may fluctuate because the grading scale depends upon the performance of students in past AP administrations. The following method of scoring, along with the corresponding chart, will give you an approximation of your score. It will not indicate the exact score you would get on the actual AP English Language & Composition Exam Managerial Economics and Financial Analysis JNTU Cambridge Scholars Publishing Establish the strong foundation in the accounting fundamentals needed to succeed with Warren/Jones/Taylor's FINANCIAL AND MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING, 15E.
