 Choosing Tablets for K-12 Students - 7 Tips You Need to ...Tablets in the K-12 Education Market. Simba Information's ongoing research into K-12 education technology, based in part on educator surveys, found the K-12 installed base of tablets had increased from 2.3 million units in 2014 to 2.8 million units in 2016, a rise of 21.7%. However, the newer number is far below an earlier forecast of more than 4 million educational tablets in K-12 classrooms by the 2016-2017 school year.
 Tablets in the K-12 Education Technology MarketThe school officials in Clearwater have even gone as far to construct a five-year tablet proposal for the Kindle, iPad, and other similar devices. The proposal states that all students in grades K-12 will use only electronic materials by year 2015 for the betterment of the students' education.
 Are Tablets Ready for K-12 Education? - TabletPCReview"A growing number of countries are embarking on large-scale, government-supported initiatives to distribute tablet devices to students in the K-12 schooling sector. Unfortunately, there is a misconception that by simply putting this technology in the hands of students, educational access issues will be resolved and educational transformation will occur.
 Tablets in education - World Bank BlogsImplementing tablets in K-12 schools requires purchasing hardware (the tablet) and software (the textbooks), building new wi-fi infrastructure, and training teachers and administrators how to use the technology. Implementation costs for e-textbooks on iPad tablets are 552% higher than new print textbooks in an average high school.
