Word® provides the ongoing instruction and advice that ministers who proclaim the Word of God need. On a practical level, it assists them in preparing their assigned reading for a specific day. When they read Workbook every week as a way of reflecting on and learning about the Scriptures, it deepens their spiritual lives and strengthens their proclamation skills. This resource contains the readings in large print for practice (with suggestions for emphasis in bold), commentaries that give background and explain the meaning of the reading, margin notes with pronunciation guides and tips for proclamation, and the responsorial psalms for reflection and context. Workbook's introduction offers an orientation to this ministry of the Word and an overview of proclamation skills.

Workbook for Lectors
And Gospel Readers

Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word® 2022 Canadian Edition

The Sacrament of Reconciliation examines this sacrament in terms of its anthropological, scriptural, historical, and theological roots. The powerful message of God's merciful love expressed through this sacrament is an essential way of knowing the "joy of the Gospel."

Discussions include literary genres of the Bible, the liturgical year, the lectionary, effective proclamation skills, and liturgical decorum.

A Child's Book of the Mass

LiturgyTrainingPublications

A resource for learning more about the reception of baptized Christians into the full communion of the Catholic church.

United States Edition

Chicago : Liturgy Training Publications ;
Ottawa : CCCB Publications

"God's Word Is Alive!" offers sound material for breaking open every reading of all three liturgical cycles, for Sundays and holy days alike. Reflection questions and points for action, a calendar for the liturgical year that goes up to year 2010, plus an index of Scripture readings that takes the reader through the Bible in sequential order, add to the value of this book.

Workbook for Lectors 2010

Liturgical Press

This is the homework book for every lector, deacon and priest. Susan E. Myers begins this book with an introduction that outlines the ministry of lector and gospel reader. Then, in the pages that follow, the three scripture readings for each Sunday and holy day are given, including all the readings for appropriate vigil Masses and for the Triduum. A commentary accompanies every scripture passage, presenting background so that readers may better understand what they are reading and thus proclaim with confidence. Each reading is presented in senseline format and is marked with stresses to help readers practice their proclamation. Margin notes point out difficult pronunciations and natural divisions within the text. Lectionary reference numbers are included for each set of readings.

This best-selling fundamental resource for presiders and lectors, homilists and liturgy planners is perfect for lector training programs, liturgy committee meetings, and scripture study groups to promote good proclamation and love of scripture in the Sunday assembly.
Triduum Liturgy Training Publications
 From USCCB Publishing, this revision of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) seeks to promote more conscious, active, and full participation of the faithful in the mystery of the Eucharist. While the Missale Romanum contains the rite and prayers for Mass, the GIRM provides specific detail about each element of the Order of Mass as well as other information related to the Mass.

Workbook for Lectors and Gospel Readers 2009 Liturgy Training Publications

This fundamental resource for presiders and lectors, homilists and liturgy planners is perfect for lector training programs, liturgy committee meetings and scripture study groups to promote good proclamation and love of scripture in the Sunday assembly.

Readings are presented in sense-line format--exactly as they appear in the lectionary--to aid the reader in preparation, and lectionary numbers are included for each set of readings. Aelred R. Rosser offers helpful commentaries for each reading, providing background information and tips for effective proclamation. Margin notes point out logical divisions in the passages and help the reader with difficult pronunciations. Words are marked in the reading to aid the reader in stressing important sections and concepts. Workbook is arranged according to the liturgical year, from the First Sunday of Advent, December 1, 2002, to the solemnity of Christ the King, November 23, 2003. The readings for Year B of the Sunday lectionary are provided in the revised New American Bible translation, approved for use in the dioceses of the United States. An Anthropological and Scriptural

Workbook's introduction offers an orientation to this ministry of the Word and an overview of proclamation skills. Marriage in the Lord, Seventh Edition Liturgy Training Publications Emphasizing both spiritual and practical preparation, this book will help both experienced and beginning lectors develop their understanding of the ministry of proclaiming the word of God as well as the skills needed to do it well. Wallace offers insight to various aspects of the lector's work (job, ministry, vocation), and reflects on the mystery of God who speaks to—and through—us in the Word. It includes an accessible explanation of important concepts related to the Lectionary and the liturgy, ideas for spiritual preparation before serving as lector, concrete guidance for ongoing skill development, and a handy pronunciation guide

Sacrament of Reconciliation Liturgy Training Publications

Few things are more publicly embarrassing than stumbling over a word during the readings at Mass. Avoid a fiasco by learning the correct pronunciation of hundreds of biblical names with Lector's Guide to Biblical Pronunciations, Updated. This very popular best seller has been completely updated and expanded to correspond with the new Lectionary. With nearly double the entries of the original edition, it is still the same small size that will fit neatly into your pocket, purse, or out of sight on the Ambo. So reasonably priced, every lector should have his or her own copy.

This edition of the Handbook for Lectors & Proclaimers of the Word contains the approved New American Bible text of the Readings for Mass on Sundays, the Sacred Paschal Triduum, and Holydays for 2022, Liturgical Year C, in which the Gospel of Luke is the primary Gospel proclaimed. A valuable introduction by well-known author Rev. Jude Winkler, OFM Conv. traces the historical tradition of Ministers of the Word, affirms the modern lector within that context, and provides practical tips. The Handbook also contains a commentary to help the lector or proclaimer of the Word to understand the reading being proclaimed, along with Pastoral Reflections. There are four helpful appendices: Introduction to the Books of the Bible Read in the Three-Year Cycle The Responsorial Psalm Glossary and Pronunciation Guide Index of Biblical Texts Bound in a flexible blue and yellow cover, the Handbook for Lectors & Proclaimers of the Word is an invaluable resource for all lectors or Ministers of the Word.
