True Tales of Online Dating from the Most Wanted Woman in New York City John Wiley & Sons

Online dating is not all fun and games and there are a lot of things that a person has to know about online dating before one gets into the intricacies of it. Online dating may seem to be the simplest thing in the world but it is not. It should be viewed in all earnestness or things could go haywire. Every game has its rules and unless you know all the rules, you just can't become a good player and eventually a winner. There are so many kinds of people around.

Just look around you - how many people you know look the same? Sizes, builds, shapes, features ... they are all so different! And that is just about the external appearances. And when it comes to character, it becomes a very different story altogether. Take a trip down memory lane, go back to your classrooms and look around. A classroom is one place where we get to interact with a lot of different people on a very close basis. We get to rub shoulders and corners with very different people and we get to know them on a one to one basis. So how many of your classmates did you genuinely like? I don't mean like them as classmates but as people. Was it easy to get along with all of them? That is why we often end up with best friends or clichés in classrooms. We do not and do not have to like everybody. The tastes and interests of one person might match with ours while the tastes and interests of another person may be at complete loggerheads with ours. So when it comes to dating, it is very much the same story. But over here, there are some strings attached. Unlike in a classroom contact, most people go on dates with a more impressive purpose, and that is to find life mate. There are a hundred and one things that should match before two people decide to spend the rest of their lives with each other. Many people are of the opinion that they do not need any help with dating. They may be right because nobody knows a person's tastes and likes better than the person himself or herself. Style Your Most Authentic Self and Cultivate a Mindful Dating Life Greenleaf Book Group

Do you want to learn how to the success tricks of online dating? If yes, then keep reading... Welcome to the first chapter of this book. Here, we shall try to understand the not so recent phenomenon of online dating. Though this book is primarily dedicated to offering you tips and tricks of the trade, it is my belief that without indulging in a bit of history and extrapolation of the subject, there is no point in moving ahead. Online dating started with the era of emails. Back when the only source of entertainment was the stupid box in your drawing room, computers waltzed into our lives one fine morning. With them came the Internet, which then led to the technological revolution, otherwise known as the Era of the Internet. Internet, since its arrival has changed our lives in more than one-way. Not only has it-bridged gaps between countries, it has also managed to make it easier for people to express themselves more. The Internet is both a blessing and a boon. While on one hand it has led to a series of cyber crimes like stalking, cyber bullying and cyber terrorism, on the other hand it has made sure that the world has reduced in size. You have access to the entire population of the planet at the mere click of a mouse. The option of sending a simple 'hi' to a random stranger made people braver and more daring. Hence, the Internet era has evolved from exchanging email addresses to sending one another friend requests in Facebook. The latest trend in online dating is dominated by applications like Tinder. Tinder is nothing but a complete online dating application that allows people to surf through potential partners with ease and comfort. In this book, we will be taking you through a journey of all the above-mentioned mediums of online dating. We will be getting you familiar with the right way to handle these social platforms in order to hit the jackpot. We will be dealing with the common mistakes men make while creating and updating their social profiles that lead them to being rejected by the partners they wish to seek. Some unfortunate males do not get the chance to even say a hi. A mere look at their social profile is enough for an average girl to hit the reject or delete button. This book contains all the details regarding the proper way to not just create a social profile but also to behave according to your needs. This book gives a comprehensive guide on the following: The benefits of online dating The difference between an online dating and traditional Everyone lies online All online dating relationships don't have a future General online dating advice Choosing an online dating service Your online profile & cyber security Getting to know each other The icing on the cake- going all-out Date's rules on the internet for women From exclusivity to moving in & engagement Let him lead, but follow at your own pace. The best advice I can give you is to read everything over once. If you can, do it in one sitting, then re read it again. Then, read the sections again that you are not sure about, and if you can, get someone else to read it as well, and both of you make notes. There are plenty of website links in this book so it probably is best to read this book while you are online so you can see exactly what I'm talking about through out the book.
