every day for three years, children will be able to see how their thoughts, creativity, and even handwriting changes from year to year. Prompts are short and sweet, allowing kids to answer as concisely (or elaborately) as they want. Questions include: If you could have a super power, what would it be? What's the grossest thing you've ever seen? Which of your friends do you trust the most? What's one thing your parents don't know about you? Rate your teachers from favorite to least favorite.

Important Questions to Ask and Discover Yourself Exisle Publishing

A simple journal that offers one question per day, to be answered on the same day for five years in a row. The questions range from the prosaic ("What did you have for lunch today?") to the contemplative ("Can people really change?"), giving readers a comprehensive look back at their thoughts and feelings over a five-year span. For anybody who has ever given up journaling after being intimidated when facing a blank page, this book makes it easy to take a snapshot of your inner life in just a few minutes each day. The beauty of this journal is that it enables readers to track their emotional growth as well as keep track of memories, and provides an interesting walk down memory lane a few years later. The simple one-question prompts make this book to journaling as adult coloring books are to art - a gateway product with built-in creative inspiration. The specially-sized package features a printed flexi-bound cover, four-color endpapers, quality paper, and bookmark ribbon.

What is revealed when you authentically connect with the people around you? In Ask Powerful Questions, Will Wise explains how the questions we traditionally ask are virtually meaningless when it comes to establishing connection. Introducing a set of practical tools for accessing and understanding others by changing the way we ask questions, Will shows how to transform "How are you? -I'm fine, thanks" into a conversation that changes not only how you lead, but who you are as a person. It took years of research, university teaching, and hundreds of client projects for Will to formulate his concept behind the art of asking powerful questions. In his book, Will breaks it down into six simple steps for all of us to be able to understand. The Asking Powerful Questions Pyramid(TM) shows you how to build: Intention Rapport Openness Listening Empathy Business professionals, personal coaches, teachers and anyone in a position of leadership will relate to the personal successes and failures Will shares as he unpacks the art of asking questions that elicit unconventional answers. Powerful questions can be used everywhere: from the board room to the city park, the dinner table to the grocery store. If you want to connect with employees at a team building retreat, hone your leadership skills as a new boss, improve the company culture where you work...this book is for you. If you want to navigate difficult conversations with your spouse or a friend, or practice presence-based listening with your kids...this book is for you. If you want to become a better educator and facilitate an ice breaker conversation with colleagues...this book is for you. Ask Powerful Questions invites the reader on a journey that explores: the clarity of intent, connecting through rapport, creating openness, reflective listening, and empathy. How can we explore the space between ourselves and others, and exchange meaningful perspectives? Just ask-powerfully.

From the team that brought you The Obstacle Is the Way and Ego Is the Enemy, a beautiful daily devotional of Stoic meditations—an instant Wall Street Journal and USA Today Bestseller. Why have history's greatest minds—from George Washington to Frederick the Great to Ralph Waldo Emerson, along with today's top performers from Super Bowl-winning football coaches to CEOs and celebrities—embraced the wisdom of the ancient Stoics? Because they realize that the most valuable wisdom is timeless and that philosophy is for living a better life, not a classroom exercise. The Daily Stoic offers 366 days of Stoic insights and exercises, featuring all-new translations from the Emperor Marcus Aurelius, the playwright Seneca, or slave-turned-philosopher Epictetus, as well as lesser-known luminaries like Zeno, Cleanthes, and Musonius Rufus. Every day of the year you'll find one of their pithy, powerful quotations, as well as historical anecdotes, provocative commentary, and a helpful glossary of Greek terms. By following these teachings over the course of a year (and, indeed, for years to come) you'll find the serenity, self-knowledge, and resilience you need to live well.

This "Journal for Girls" notebook has 101 questions for your little girl. They are supposed to help them open up, deepen relationship with the family and those around them, focus on positive things and become more aware of themselves. You can ask these questions or you could ask your daughter to write them down on a piece of paper or use this book to write in the lines provided. As parents we do our best for our children but often we lose track of things. This activity will make you more aware of how much or how little you know about your child.

How to Create the Happy, Healthy, Life You Want to Live Wind & Palm Publishing Looking for more connection with your kids--and more fun, too? Welcome to the Bounceback Parenting League! This insightful and empowering book is more than just another parenting guide. It's a playbook filled with simple yet powerful "secret missions" for parents who want to recharge, refresh and restart in a positive new way. Filled with simple challenges, journal prompts with room to write, and inspiring advice to try today, this is a game-changing resource for overwhelmed moms and dads everywhere. Get ready for your first mission....

The Daily Stoic Createspace Independent Publishing Platform This journal deepens the mother/daughter bond while creating a keepsake for when conversation is no longer possible. With journaling questions for Mom such as: "What have you learned from heartbreak?" "Is there a book you hope I'll read?" "When you're gone, what is something you'll want me to remember you saying?" These questions will transport you from the daily routine into a time when the ordinary has been rendered sacred. Whether you're a parent looking to leave a legacy to your child, or a child recording memories of your parent, make time for the questions you'll later wish you asked: your future self will thank you. Commonly asked: who is this journal for? The journal provides over 100 questions for a mother to answer for her daughter. It makes a perfect baby shower gift for a new mother of a baby girl, keepsake gift for an aging mother or daughter, and thoughtful present for mothers and daughters of all stages in between. Some daughters sit with their parents and fill out the journal while asking the questions: this invites thoughtful conversations, generational connection, and intimacy. Others choose to purchase the journal for themselves, fill it out, and later present it as a gift to their daughters. This journal can be an especially thoughtful gift for a mother who has lost her own mother; the "motherless" mother often deeply recognizes the importance of recording thoughts and memories for her children.

3 Year Journal Questions to Ask Children Macmillan

Do you want to start writing a journal but don't know where to start? Do you want to write a diary but don't know what to write? Don't worry, this "Journal for Men" has 121 thought provoking questions that you can answer. These questions are sure to make you think about who you are and where you are heading. Why not spend a few minutes a day pondering over these questions and writing some of your thoughts down. You don't need to start from the very first page or the question, just choose a random question and start writing. Here are some of the benefits of writing a journal. It gives you a power of perspective. Discover yourself through writing. Sometimes it's so much easier if it's written down. It helps to reflect on the things you have done and things you need to do in the future. Writing a journal helps clear your thoughts and feelings. Lots of problems are solved when they are written down. It will help you improve yourself. Clarify your thoughts and feelings. Help you be more confident. Rather than letting emotions being bottled up, it comes out on paper and helps you to be happier in yourself. Helps you spend your free time doing something creative rather than sitting in front of the idiot box. Relax, listen to music and write your thoughts down and be yourself. Writing about emotions in an abstract sense has a calming effect. Know yourself better. It will help you reduce stress. Sometimes strong emotions such as anger or sadness can be very painful and writing will help you overcome those emotional distresses. Those who write can recover traumatic events more quickly than those who don't. Writing helps boost the immune system. In a study conducted by Professor James Pennebaker (University of Texas in Austin) showed that those who wrote for 20 minutes a day had less visits to the doctor compared to those who didn't. For Men: Just because you are a man does not mean you can't write a journal. Men too have feelings, they too have fears, and they too have desires that need to be expressed. This "Journal For Men" has a set of questions that you can write and help discover yourself. This diary will put you on your way to self discovery.
