Buku ini merupakan satu usaha untuk memaparkan sejarah masyarakat India di Malaysia. Sebagai satu daripada kumpulan utama dalam masyarakat di Malaysia, orang India mempunyai jaluran sejarah yang panjang dan cukup unik dalam konteks perkembangan negara ini. Walau bagaimanapun, sehingga kini tidak banyak kajian diberikan kepada masyarakat ini yang terdiri daripada berbagai kelompok seperti masyarakat Tamil yang menjadi kelompok dominan dalam masyarakat India di Malaysia, mahupun kumpulan-kumpulan lain seperti masyarakat Sikh, Ceti, Chettiar dan India Muslim. Buku ini akan memberikan perhatian bukan sahaja mengenai asal-usul kedatangan masyarakat India, namun lebih penting lagi berbagai rupabentuk transformasi ekonomi, sosial dan politik yang berlaku kepada masyarakat ini sejak sekurang-kurangnya abad ke-19 hingga abad ke-20. Buku ini sangat sesuai untuk dijadikan bahan rujukan untuk pelajar di pusat pengajian tinggi yang mengikuti kursus mengenai masyarakat Malaysia, pembentukan negara mahupun sejarah masyarakat minoriti. Selain itu, buku ini juga sesuai untuk kegunaan golongan guru dan pendidik, pelajar-pelajar sekolah yang mengikuti pelajaran sejarah serta peminat sejarah Malaysia.

Seize and expand the competitive edge with a smart, well-managed culture “renovation” Most business leaders understand the power of a dynamic, positive culture—but almost every effort to change culture fails. Why? The approach is often all wrong. Rather than attempt to “transform” a new culture from the ground up, leaders need to instead spearhead a culture renovation. It's all about keeping what works, changing what needs to be changed, and ensuring proper care and maintenance—much like refurbishing and living in a beautiful historic home and improving its overall value. In Culture Renovation, the head of the world's leading HR research firm—the Institute for Corporate Productivity (i4cp)—Kevin Oakes provides tangible, tactical insights drawn from a robust data set and informed by CEOs and HR leaders at many of the world's top companies. You'll find everything you need to rebuild your corporate culture with care and expertise, including: Three phases and detailed action steps for architecting the change you want to see Practical insights and examples from T-Mobile, Microsoft, 3M, and other top companies The traits of a healthy corporate culture Proven talent practices to maintain your new culture for long-term success Oakes identifies 18 proven leadership actions for turning any culture into an agile, resilient, and innovative high-performance organization. You'll learn how to best understand the culture in place today and set a new cultural path for decades to come; develop a co-creation mindset; identify influencers and blockers; ferret out skeptics and non-believers; measure, monitor, and report progress; and implement “next practices” in talent strategies to sustain the renovation. Culture Renovation delivers everything you need to plan, build, and maintain a corporate culture that drives profits, growth, and business sustainability now and well into the future.

Buku ini membuat andaian bahawa penggunaan bahasa harian sebenarnya suatu persembahan yang bertujuan menambat hati pelaku komunikasi agar terus bersama-sama untuk menjalin kesejahteraan dalam interaksi. Penelitian yang bertunjangkan analisis persembahan wacana ini melahirkan satu model penyelidikan sosiosemiotik interpersonal. Kemahiran menggunakan angkubah sosiosemiotik didapati mampu menegakkan keharmonian dalam pergaulan manusia. Apabila faktor sosiosemiotik diambil kira dalam kajian komunikasi maka wujudlah konsep komunikasi cakupan luas. Kepentingan komunikasi cakupan luas menjadi semakin nyata apabila komunikasi bersemuka bertukar menjadi konflik dalam pergaulan kerana kesilapan lawak jenaka yang bertentangan dengan nilai budaya-bahasa, taraf sosial atau gender yang dibawa bersama oleh pelaku komunikasi ke dalam persembahan wacana interaktif harian. Perbualan harian, drama pendidikan, madah cinta, pernyataan perasaan berahi dalam wacana teater dan peribahasa merupakan beberapa jenis episod komunikasi yang disentuh dalam buku ini. Dalam interaksi harian, pelaku komunikasi menjadi berkuasa atau sebaliknya semasa merancang persembahan wacana sebagai daya pemusatan identiti sosial. Perbincangan semiotik persembahan wacana ini mengembalikan keindahan berinteraksi sesama rakan dan kesenian berkomunikasi di antara manusia.

This book is the first practical, hands-on guide that shows how leaders can build psychological safety in their organizations, creating an environment where employees feel included, fully engaged, and encouraged to contribute their best efforts and ideas. Fear has a profoundly negative impact on engagement, learning efficacy, productivity, and innovation, but until now there has been a lack of practical information on how to make employees feel safe about speaking up and contributing. Timothy Clark, a social scientist and an organizational consultant, provides a framework to move people through successive stages of psychological safety. The first stage is member safety—the team accepts you and grants you shared identity. Learner safety, the second stage, indicates that you feel safe to ask questions, experiment, and even make mistakes. Next is the third stage of contributor safety, where you feel comfortable participating as an active and full-fledged member of the team. Finally, the fourth stage of challenger safety allows you to take on the status quo without repercussion, reprisal, or the risk of tarnishing your personal standing and reputation. This is a blueprint for how any leader can build positive, supportive, and encouraging cultures in any setting.

First published in 1978, The Indonesian Tragedy is a controversial book that argues that Indonesia's lack of economic development is due to the blind attempt to force a Western economic model on a population, whose culture and psychology are unsuited to it. The author demonstrates the 'Indonesian Tragedy' not so much by argument, as by depicting the country as he experienced it day to day. In developing his conclusion, he draws on history, and the works of sociologists, some of whom he disagrees with. In this way he sheds light on the predicament of Indonesia and helps to illuminate a problem common to much of the Third World. This book will be of interest to students of history, sociology, journalism, and Southeast Asian studies.

Raumanen, a prize-winning novel by Marianne Katoppo, tells the story of Monang, a handsome but wayward Batak man, and Raumanen, a young Minahasa woman who, though educated and intelligent, is also a 'soft touch' when it comes to love. As is deftly revealed by the author in this novel, even in modern day Indonesia, matters of religion and ethnicity can greatly affect—for better or worse—the course of a couple's relationship.

"Beautifully written, compellingly personal, and a treasure to read." —Most Rev. Charles J. Chaput, OFM, Cap., Archbishop of Philadelphia "This spiritually grounded, easy-to-read treatise is a solid piece of research, and yet is still packed throughout with supporting anecdotes that the reader will recognize and appreciate. Eminently practicable, Unrepeatable is for every Christian, especially the teacher, counselor, or spiritual director, who is truly serious about sifting through the cultural morass to find the 'right' vocation, rather than just a job." —Bishop Robert Barron, Auxiliary Bishop, Archdiocese of Los Angeles What if we were able to gain profound insight into the unique design, creative drive, and potential destiny of the people in our lives? The bold promise of this book is that we can. This ability carries an awesome responsibility: We must all be mentors and midwives to the personal vocations of others. Unrepeatable is about the urgent need for each of us to cultivate the vocations of others and the steps we should take to do it well. By smartly weaving evocative stories of those who have radically lived out their callings with practical tools for discernment and mentorship, Luke Burgis and Joshua Miller—who have a combined twenty-five years of experience helping people and organizations discover their purpose—turn staid perceptions of vocation on their head. Unrepeatable will equip you to:

- Renew your church, school, community, or company by empowering every member to discover, embrace, and fully live out their unique calling
- Confidently teach and mentor young people in critical skills of discernment and decision-making
- Know and be known by others in a deeply personal way through a technique that unlocks and awakens the deepest desires of the heart

As we enter into the stories of others' lives, we enter into the story of God's love. There is no greater adventure. Unrepeatable invites you to be a part of it.

The Universe Always Has a Plan Penerbit USM

Buku ini, yang merupakan satu koleksi 12 esei, ialah penghargaan kepada Profesor Madya Dr. R. Suntharalingam sempena persaraannya pada Oktober 1991 yang disumbangkan oleh rakan-rakan dari Bahagian Sejarah, Pusat Pengajian Ilmu Kemanusiaan, Universiti Sains Malaysia dan semasa beliau menuntut di Universiti Malaya di Singapura serta bekas-bekas pelajarnya. Buku ini dibahagikan kepada dua bahagian, iaitu pensejarahan dan nasionalisme, dua bidang yang sangat diminati oleh Dr. Suntharalingam dengan tumpuan kepada sejarah Malaysia. Sejarah Malaysia pula bukanlah satu bidang yang asing kepada Dr. Suntharalingam. Di samping mengendalikan penyeliaan latihan ilmiah (semuanya dalam bidang sejarah Malaysia) untuk pelajar tahun akhir, beliau juga kerap merujuk kepada sejarah

Malaysia ketika mengendalikan kursus-kursus yang berkaitan dengan pensejarahan. Malah bagi seorang pakar sejarah India, pengetahuannya tentang sejarah Malaysia amat mengagumkan. Bab pertama merupakan perbincangan Cheah Boon Kheng tentang feudalisme Melayu. Dengan menggariskan ciri-ciri feudalisme yang terdapat dalam sejarah Eropah Barat, beliau membincangkan dengan panjang lebar feudalisme Melayu di zaman prapenajahan. Lebih menarik lagi beliau mengajukan persoalan apakah feudalisme Melayu itu satu ciptaan orang Inggeris atau merupakan satu hakikat yang benar-benar wujud. Di dalam bab berikutnya, Mohamad Isa Othman memberikan perhatian kepada sumber sejarah Kedah khususnya Al-Tarikh Salasilah Negeri Kedah yang diterbitkan buat pertama kalinya pada tahun 1928 dan ditulis oleh Muhammad Hassan bin Muhammad Arshad (Tok Kerani Rahsia al-marhum Sultan Ahmad Tajuddin Mukaram Syah). Menurut Mohamad Isa, apa juga kelemahannya sumber ini tetap penting bagi mengkaji sejarah Kedah Darul Aman. Di dalam bab ketiga, K. Anbalakan membincangkan objektiviti di dalam sejarah, yang menurutnya bukan merupakan satu impian, satu perkara yang semestinya boleh menarik perhatian setiap penuntut sejarah. Sementara itu Qasim Ahmad pula membincangkan persoalan pokok dalam ilmu sejarah seperti sumber (termasuk juga bukti), pengesahan fakta, pentafsiran dan objektiviti. Lebih menarik lagi perbincangan ini dibuat dengan merujuk kepada pendapat beberapa orang ahli sejarah termasuk Dr. Suntharalingam. Satu aliran baru dalam ilmu sejarah, aliran Pasca-Modenisme, disentuh dengan panjang lebar oleh Tan Liok Ee di dalam bab lima. Perbincangan menarik ini tentunya berguna kepada para pelajar yang mengikuti kursus Teori dan Kaedah, satu kursus yang pernah dikendalikan oleh Dr. Suntharalingam. Dengan merujuk kepada beberapa aspek teori ini, Tan Liok Ee menyoal apakah Pasca-Modenisme membawa satu haluan baru sejarah yang menyegarkan atau sebaliknya menyahstabilkan ilmu sejarah. Di dalam bab yang berikutnya, Tan Kim Hong membincangkan falsafah dan pendekatan Ssu-ma Ch'ien, seorang sejarawan ulung China tradisional terhadap penulisan sejarah sezaman (wangsa). Keobjektifan karya agung sejarawan Cina ini yang berjudul Shih Chi juga diuji dan seterusnya Tan Kim Hong membuat kesimpulan bahawa karya ini merupakan satu karya sejarah yang objektif dan sekaligus menaikkan mutu pensejarahan China tradisional. Esei Mahani

Musa pula membincangkan satu dokumen menarik berkenaan sejarah sosial Pulau Pinang yang merupakan buku catatan harian (diari) Shaikh Omar Basheer, seorang tokoh Melayu Pulau Pinang pada abad ke-19. Antara lainnya, diari ini menyentuh kegiatan agama dan perdagangan Shaikh Omar dan juga penglibatan orang Melayu dalam kongsi gelap Bendera Putih dan Bendera Merah. Sumbangan penting Paul Kratoska, walaupun ditulis dalam bahasa Inggeris, merupakan satu tinjauan ringkas berkenaan sumber di dalam bahasa Inggeris, yang dikeluarkan oleh kerajaan Inggeris dan sebelumnya Syarikat Hindia Timur, berkaitan sejarah Malaysia. Walaupun sumber-sumber ini dalam bentuk asalnya disimpan di London (seperti di Public Record Office dan India Office Library), kebanyakannya boleh didapati dalam bentuk mikrofilem di perpustakaan di Malaysia dan Singapura. Tinjauan seperti ini semestinya amat berguna kepada penuntut dan juga pengkaji sejarah Malaysia. Bahagian kedua yang berkisar kepada nasionalisme dimulakan dengan perbincangan Abdul Rahman Ismail berkenaan kemunculan nasionalisme Melayu. Perbincangan yang menarik ini dibuat berdasarkan kepada akhbar serta majalah Melayu yang telah diterbitkan sekitar penghujung abad ke-19 hingga separuh pertama abad ke-20. Abdul Rahman membuat kesimpulan bahawa nasionalisme Melayu sudah pun muncul sebelum tahun 1930-an, sekaligus menolak pandangan William Roff yang cukup berpengaruh sehingga hari ini. Sementara itu Abu Talib Ahmad pula, dengan merujuk kepada sumber Inggeris dan Jepun, membincangkan dasar serta tindakan kerajaan penjajah, di London dan di Simla (markas kerajaan buangan Burma di antara Mei 1942-Oktobor 1945), terhadap isu penubuhan dengan Jepun serta kesetiaan kepada Inggeris yang ditunjukkan oleh tokoh-tokoh tempatan seperti Aung San, Dr. Ba Maw, U Ba U dan Sir Paw Tun. Kemunculan persatuan "sosial" India sejak awal abad ke-20 merupakan fokus perbincangan Khoo Kay Kim di dalam bab sebelas. Kesimpulan yang dibuat oleh beliau berkenaan persatuan ini yang merupakan tabir bagi pemimpin India semasa "berpolitik" lantas mencadangkan perlunya disemak semula maksud "persatuan politik" dalam konteks sejarah Malaysia merupakan satu cadangan yang menarik. Di dalam bab yang akhir, dengan merujuk kepada sumber lisan di antaranya, Ismail Md. Isa menumpukan perhatiannya kepada sejarah tempatan dengan merujuk kepada "penubuhan" Pekan Cina di Alor Setar pada awal abad ke-19. Pekan Cina merupakan satu kawasan penempatan orang Cina yang dikelilingi oleh kawasan kediaman orang Melayu terutamanya petani. This is the eBook of the printed book and may not include any media, website access codes, or print supplements that may come packaged with the bound book. Written for pre-service teacher candidates who have little or no classroom experience, Rick Stiggins' multiple award-winning and market-leading text focuses squarely on preparing new teachers to assess students in classrooms, providing them with their initial orientation to classroom assessment and to the challenges they will face in monitoring student learning, in using the assessment process, and its results to benefit their students. The text clearly instructs teaching candidates on how to gather dependable evidence of student learning using quality assessments and how to use those assessments to support and to certify student learning. The book has an exceptionally strong focus on integrating assessment with instruction through student involvement in the assessment process; it is clearly the most non-technical and hands on practical orientation to assessment validity and reliability yet developed. It offers five easy-to-understand keys to effective classroom assessment practice that any teacher can learn to apply. The presentation covers the full range of classroom assessment methods, when and how to use them and how to communicate results in ways that support learning. Examples and models are offered across grade levels and schools subjects to assist candidates in learning these things. The treatment of student-involved assessment, record keeping, and communication as an instructional intervention is a unique entity of the text. Specific assessment strategies are offered throughout for helping students see the learning target from the beginning and then watch themselves move progressively close over time until they achieve ultimate learning success. Showing how to use assessment to accurately reflect student achievement and how to benefit—not merely grade—student learning, the text examines the full spectrum of assessment topics, from articulating targets, through developing quality assessments and communicating results effectively.

Agricultural Involution: The Processes of Ecological Change in Indonesia is one of the most famous of the early works of Clifford Geertz. Its principal thesis is that many centuries of intensifying wet-rice cultivation in Indonesia had produced greater social complexity without significant technological or political change, a process Geertz terms "involution". Written for a US-funded project on the local developments and following the modernization theory of Walt Whitman Rostow, Geertz examines in this book the agricultural system in Indonesia and its two dominant forms of agriculture, swidden and sawah. In addition to researching its agricultural systems, the book turns to an examination of their historical development. Of particular note is Geertz's discussion of what he famously describes as the process of "agricultural involution" in Java, where both the external economic demands of the Dutch rulers and the internal pressures due to population growth led to intensification rather than change.
