In "Fernando's Birds," he takes the reader from the bosques, canyons and mountains of his native New Mexico to the Florida swamps to assemble something akin to a family album of birds. From the common House Finch to the beautiful Lazuli Bunting, each photograph reveals distinguished characters with a back story in a way you may not have imagined birds before. These images, coupled with his witty, sometimes poignant observations and tales, will keep you smiling as you turn each page. Best known for his work as a songwriter, singer, composer, and arranger of Christian music, Fernando Ortega here shows his reverence for and delight in the wondrous creatures who share our world.

Vincent Cichowicz - Fundamental Studies for the Developing

Trumpet Player Alfred Music

Those familiar with the music of Dan Schutte are in for a great treat here. As in his music, he deals with themes of longing and desire for God, the hungers of the human heart, unfulfilled human hopes and dreams, and the profound happiness of finding ones home in God. The exercises here are loosely based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, and the goal is the same for both: to draw readers into a personal, living, growing relationship with Jesus Christ.

The Swete Rose was written for the Choir of New College, Oxford. This gentle piece offers choirs an appealingly fresh option for Advent and Christmas services. The lovely 15th-century text provides a characterful foundation over which Toby has crafted an essentially contemporary carol that cleverly recalls the modal world of medieval music. Scored for unaccompanied mixed voices with divisi, this work is especially suitable for Cathedral and Chapel choirs.
