I don't know when the moments of my everyday life, slipped away from my grip and just like ink, spread on sheets of paper. I just cast a nostalgic gaze at them, and those words just transformed into some complete and some incomplete sentences. The story of my life is now in your hands.

Neglected Poems

Thoughts Gulzar is regarded as one of India's foremost Urdu poets today, renowned for his unusual perspectives on life, his keen understanding of the complexities of human relationships, and his striking imagery. After Selected Poems, a collection of some of his best poetry translated by Pavan K. Varma was extremely well received, Gulzar has chosen to present his next sixty poems in an inimitable way: labelling them Neglected Poems.

'Neglected' only in name, these poems represent Gulzar at his creative and imaginative best, as he meditates on nature (the mountains, the monsoon, a sparrow), delves into human psychology (when a relationship ends one is amazed to notice that 'everything goes on exactly as it used to'), explores great cities like Mumbai, Chennai, Kolkata, Delhi and New York ('In your town, my friend, how is it that there are no homes for ants?'), and confronts the most telling moments of everyday life.

 The Indian Listener (fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English) published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service, Bombay, started on 22 december, 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in english, which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927. From 22 August, 1937 onwards, it was published by All India Radio, New Delhi. In 1950, it was turned into a weekly journal. Later, The Indian listener became "Akashvani" in January 5, 1958. It was made a fortnightly again on July 1, 1983. It used to serve the listener as a bradshaw of broadcasting, and give listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes, who writes them, take part in them and produce them along with photographs of performing artists. It also contains the information of major changes in the policy and service of the organisation. The Subaltern Studies Collective, founded in 1982, was begun with the goal of examining the subsequent history of colonized countries. This new group of essays from the Collective's founders chart the course of subaltern history from early peasant revolts and insurgency to more complex processes of domination and subordination in a variety of changing institutions and practices.

A Sky Beyond the Storm

Flairs and Glairs

The first feeling of love is very special, everything is near but still I am sad. If the memories of the beloved are near then there is happiness, enthusiasm and joy in life, The first feeling of love is very special. First love in life is like a new spring, like rain for a drought. The company of loved ones, the first love, like a sweet dispute with the beloved. That series of talks and sometimes victory and defeat in talks. First love should not be forgotten, no matter how much the soulmate hurts. First love is something else, now what else should I tell you? Memories of first love sometimes make you laugh and sometimes make you cry, Whether the beloved is far or near, the feeling of first love is very special

Hope can be a wish for something to occur, a desire for things to improve, or a specific ambition or aspiration. It is crucial for us to have hope in our lives and to look forward with optimism. Hope also serves as a significant barrier against invasive or potentially dangerous ideas. Also, hope is very personal, so it's crucial not to let other people's opinions influence how you judge your success. Your goals are significant to you personally. "Asha: A Ray of Hope" is an anthology based on the theme of hope. Don't Call It Bollywood All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi

Iqbal's Poetry U of Minnesota Press
 On the fiftieth anniversary of the 1971 Indo-Pak war, revisit its battlefields through stories of bravehearts from the army, navy and air force who fought for a cause that meant more to them than their own lives Why do the Gorkha soldiers of 4/5 GR attack a heavily defended enemy post with just naked khukris in their hands? Does Pakistan find out the real identity of the young pilot who, after having ejected from a burning plane, calls himself Flt Lt Mansoor Ali Khan? What awaits the naval diver who cuts made-in-India labels off his clothes and crosses into East Pakistan with a machine gun slung across his back? Why is a twenty-one-year-old Sikh paratrooper being taught to jump off a stool in a deserted hangar at Dum Dum airport with a Packet aircraft waiting nearby?

1971 is a deeply researched collection of true stories of extraordinary human grit and courage that shows you a side to war that few military histories do.

Some bonds lie beyond utterances, ineffable.

When a stranger squirms into being an integral part of life. While at times a loved one changes into an outsider. The desired gain and sometimes a startling loss. This is a toll that life gives rise to. Enabling us to discover and evolve through various shades of acquaintances, that is in store for us. It is through this anthology that many co-authors have tried to share such familiarities with the readers. There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under the heavens. A time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn, and a time to dance, a time to lose, and a time to gain.

Prepare for the jaw-dropping finale of Sabaa Tahir's beloved New York Times bestselling An Ember in the Ashes fantasy series, and discover: Who will survive the storm? Picking up just a few months after A Reaper at the Gates left off... The long-imprisoned jinn are on the attack, wreaking bloody havoc in villages and cities alike. But for the Nightbringer, vengeance on his human foes is just the beginning. By his side, Commandant Keris Veturia declares herself Empress, and calls for the heads of any and all who defy her rule. At the top of the list? The Blood Shrike and her remaining family. Laia of Serra, now allied with the Blood Shrike, struggles to recover from the loss of the two people most important to her.

Determined to stop the approaching apocalypse, she throws herself into the destruction of the Nightbringer. In the process, she awakens an ancient power that could lead her to victory—or to an unimaginable doom. And deep in the Waiting Place, the Soul Catcher seeks only to forget the life—and love—he left behind. Yet doing so means ignoring the trail of murder left by the Nightbringer and his jinn. To uphold his oath and protect the human world from the supernatural, the Soul Catcher must look beyond the borders of his own land. He must take on a mission that could save—or destroy—all that he knows.
