Adventure Bible Book of Devotions, NIV NavPress

Fear is real, and it is a part of everyone's journey, whether they choose to believe it or not. The Holy Bible mentions variations of the word 'fear' approximately 700 times. In its different forms, we can see in Scripture that there is healthy fear and unhealthy fear, righteous fear and unrighteous fear, fear that is sinful and fear that is not sinful. I hope this book helps you to know the differences. Many times, in the Bible, the Lord or someone else tells us to "fear not," then the same will speak, telling us that we should fear. Scriptures could possibly be misinterpreted without the help of commentary or an explanation from someone. I hope to help you understand when and when not to fear. As we journey through this devotional concerning fear, I use Scripture from almost every book of the Bible. Some books just do not contain the word 'fear' or any variation of the word. For those books that do, you will usually see in this devotional a single verse concerning fear, accompanied by details of what's happening in the Scripture. Take this literature one day at a time, always praying before and after. Do not get ahead of yourself and don't get behind. Let's walk together for one full year as we study what the Holy Bible says about fear. I even added an extra day just in case you're reading this during leap year. May the Lord bless you, keep you. and give you understanding as you read. Enjoy!
