Excerpt from Next-of-Kin Marriages in Old Iran: An Address Delivered Before the Bombay Branch Royal Asiatic Society, on the 15th and 22nd April, 1887 In all the inquiries which have long engaged the attention of European Orientalists, their efforts have been directed almost exclusively to verifying the testimony of classical reports to the effect that marriage between the nearest blood relations was not an uncommon practice among the Old Iranians in the times of the Achaemenidae, the Arsacidae and the sasadidae. Nay, it has even come to pass that several European savants have claimed to have discovered positive evidence of such marriages in the Sacred Writings and in the later Pahlavi works of the Irfinians them selves. Who Have Been Advertised for to Claim Money and Property in Great Britain and All Parts of the World (Classic Reprint) Forgotten Books

For over 2,000 years after the physical death of Jesus Christ on the Cross, mankind has been asking serious questions about the purpose of life here on earth due to religious confusion, premature deaths, diseases, poverty, famine, illnesses, natural disasters, wars, terrorism, climate change, broken marriages, drought, corruptions, greed, depression, recessions, slavery, addiction, accidents, deformities, immorality, selfishness, repression, etc. Life has been so difficult for most inhabitants of this planet, especially people in poor and underdeveloped parts of the world. Many people have lost faith in God, and some do not even believe that He exists. This book explains my true life story, the story leading up to the external voice of God to me, the reason for the worlds problems, and also the ultimate solutions to the worlds unending problems. Gods anointed single worldwide leader is the only person who can take everyone around the globe forward to everlasting unity, peace, and stability. I am back and ready to put things right once and for all here on planet earth, and I want leaders of this present world to seriously consider my claim as the ultimate leader of the entire world. This book is primarily directed to every soul on this planet, especially believers of the existence of the Almighty God, mostly Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and all other religious establishments that exist. We must all now stand up together for what we believe to be true and move the people of this planet to the promised world. Almighty God will richly bless you as you read this book with an open mind. When the world has lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing of myself, but as My Father taught and directs Me, I speak these things. The purpose of life here on earth is to honour and obey Gods words, worship Him by faith, in truth and in spirit, to work hard and help each other and then enjoy the beauty and majesty of this planet in unity, peace, love and harmony and also the planets our Father is about to reveal to mankind. The ultimate purpose of life is to become gods and to lead an everlasting life.

“A journey through the original RAF Casualty Branch files, and all the other available sources of information relating to RAF wartime casualties.” —Military Historical Society At its height during the Second World War, the RAF totaled 185,000 personnel. All information concerning casualties was carefully complied at the Air Ministry and now, from these the official records, those covering operational losses (in the air and on the ground) and flying accidents are being made available to the public through The National Archives. This huge collection of casualty files contains a wealth of contemporary documentation from a variety of sources including captured German records. It includes official documents, examples of which are given, accounts of searches undertaken to establish the fate of the missing, places of burial, copies of information received from the International Red Cross and from sources within enemy occupied lands, as well as letters from family and friends some of which reveal dark secrets of bigamy, adultery, illegitimacy, debt and dishonor. In this groundbreaking book, Mary Hudson has used her expert knowledge to provide an invaluable guide to the understanding of these records for use by researchers and family members alike. “An intriguing work bringing the fruits of many years of inside experience into the hands of those trying to find the missing piece in the jigsaw of a family tree or any RAF historian.” —The Shackleton Association “Fascinating . . . illustrates the dedication of the teams who handled the difficult issues of death and the missing in a very compassionate and dedicated manner.” —Journal of The Orders & Medals Research Society

This how-to guide presents today's most complete coverage of performing, interpreting, and reporting post-mortem examinations. In addition to discussing the basics of the specialty, this lasting and useful reference features information on the performance of specialized autopsy procedures. The material is divided into two sections for ease of use: a manual covering specific autopsy procedures, biosafety, generation of autopsy reports, preparation of death certificates, and other essential subjects; and an atlas, organized by organ system, that captures the appearance of the complete spectrum of autopsy findings. The updated second edition features a new chapter on the popular topic of forensic pathology and the Expert Consult functionality allows you to access the entire contents of the book online. Focuses on hospital autopsy, while also providing a brief introduction to forensic autopsy. Examines autopsy photography and radiology, microscopic examination, supplemental laboratory studies, and other investigative approaches. Includes a chapter on performing special dissection procedures that are usually not covered during a typical residency. Presents over 590 full-color photographs depicting common gross and microscopic autopsy findings for every part of the body. Correlates pathologic findings with their clinical causes to enhance diagnostic accuracy. Covers the hot topic of forensic pathology in a new chapter introducing the subspecialty. Addresses the latest legal, social, and ethical issues as well as quality improvement and quality assurance. Features improved images in the Atlas section to give an even more useful visual reference. Allows you to access the entire contents of the book online, from any internet connection through Expert Consult. Your purchase entitles you to access the web site until the next edition is published, or until the current edition is no longer offered for sale by Elsevier, whichever occurs first. If the next edition is published less than one year after your purchase, you will be entitled to online access for one year from your date of purchase. Excerpt from The Next of Kin, Vol. 1 of 3: A Novel in Three Volumes It was one of those days very apt to make an Englishman peevish, idle, unsettled, and splenetic when he would very likely swear that the rainy season in Abyssinia could not be half so bad to endure as those alternate days of showers and sunshine in his own country. As the autumn twilight set in, all things looked still more dismal and uninviting yet, out into those murky, sloppy streets Mr. Maggs must go, for it was long past the usual hour of leaving his office; and he looked oftener, and more impatiently towards the window, wishing the rain would cease for a sufficient time to allow of his walking home without getting wet through. Excerpt from To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress Assembled: Petition of Major G. Tochman, Attorney and Counsel of the Next of Kin and Heirs at Law of Gen. Thadeus Kosciusko, December, 1847 Mr. Bradley, finding himself unable to meet the refutation, made, ' in open court - a violent rush at me, menacing and attempting to strike me, and insulting me in the most unbecom ing manner; which insult, offered to the court and to myself, from complacency towards Mr. Bradley, was entirely looked over by the court. One of the judges turned his face round and laughed; another said nothing, and the third, with much reluc tance, brought himself to utter simply the words it is very improper, Mr. Bradley, very improper indeed. After which be (mr. Bradley) made a sort of mock apology, and when, thereupon, i called upon the court to take notice of what he had done and said, Judge Morsel violently replied, Mr. Tech man, if you say a word more, I will order the marshall to take you out of the court. My self-respect directed me to leave the court immediately, which I accordingly did. I then took into my own hands the protection of my honor, which no man should surrender to the keeping of the community in which he lives, when its authorities cannot, or refuse to protect him. This painful incident has been here alluded to, merely to show to your honorable body, how deeply has been affected by the interference of Mr. De Bodisco, Minister from Russia, with my professional pursuits, even my personal security, the enjoyment of which the constitution of these United States so solemnly secures to every citizen of this great republic. Many other incidents, perhaps graver than any of those already alluded to. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Excerpt from Index to Heirs-at-Law, Next of Kin, Legatees, Missing Friends, Encumbrancers, and Creditors or Their Representatives in Chancery Suits, Who Have Been Advertised for During the Last 150 Years: Containing Upwards of 50, 000 Names, Relating to Vast Sums of Unclaimed Money; Collected, Compiled, and Alphabetically Arranged Since the last Edition of this work was published, the Advertisements and Information to which the names relate have been nearly doubled, and a new Edition being called for, the Compiler has endeavoured, at great expense, to make it the most perfect Index of its kind. It contains upwards of names of persons advertised for during the last 150 years in the London Gazette, Times, and numerous other London and Country newspapers, inquiring for Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, Legatees, and others to come forward and prove their claims to property of the aggregate value of many millions sterling. It is only necessary to mention one or two facts to shew the usefulness of an Index such as this. By a return recently presented to the House of Commons, the amount of the Suitors' Stock and Cash standing in the Court of Chancery is 5s. 6d. Of this sum a large portion awaits claimants. There is also an enormous sum standing unclaimed at the Bank of England in the shape of Unclaimed Dividends. On the National Debt alone the amount was, at the commencement of 1872, nearly Very large sums are also due to the representatives of persons who have died abroad intestate, and the amount of Army and Navy Prize Money due to the Representatives of deceased Soldiers and Sailors is in round numbers A very large proportion of these vast sums can readily be recovered on properly authenticated proofs of relationship being produced. A copy of a Next of Kin advertisement is often sufficient to put inquirers in possession of a direct clue to very large sums of money.
